In the Good Old Summertime

Summertime is travel time, sunny skies and the open road are calling! Our great Selection Committee, composed of volunteer participants and headed up by Bob Lenz, has picked out six great road trips for your pleasure.

First, let's hit the water! Join us for a sight-seeing cruise of the Milwaukee River harbor and Lake Michigan aboard Milwaukee's largest vessel, the Vista King. Prior to the cruise, we will dine at Alioto's.

Then how about an afternoon road trip to the Pec Playhouse in Pecatonica, IL to see Bye-Bye Birdie. This classic 1963 musical comedy will put a smile on your face. We will stop by Cimino's authentic Italian Ristorante for a delicious meal. Of course, we must have cannoli for dessert, the perfect ending for any Italian lunch!

Come see Scapino! Meander along with us to rural Mt. Carroll, Illinois to the Timberlake Playhouse for this delightfully zany, non-stomp comedic matinee. Timber Lake is proud of its national reputation for excellence as a professional summer stock theater. This trip includes lunch at the Lake Carroll Clubhouse.

As the song goes, "put on your Sunday clothes, there's lots of world out there." Join us for Hello Dolly! at Sunset Playhouse in Elm Grove WI. We will dine at the scenic Oconomowoc Golf Club.

When summer is in full swing what better way to beat the August heat than on a boat with good friends and good food? Let's eat, drink and float away on a Lake Geneva Luncheon Cruise! Enjoy a 2¼ hour narrated tour of Lake Geneva aboard the Grand Belle and a delicious sit-down plated meal. The Grand Belle is designed after turn-of-the-century steamers. The main deck is enclosed and climate controlled.

On Wed., August 23, we are headed to Waupaca, for one of our favorite guided boat tours. Sit back and unwind, as we take in the enchanting Chain O' Lakes from a viewpoint like no other aboard the authentic 60-foot sternwheeler, The Chief Waupaca.

Our trips tend to fill quickly. Send in your reservation today. Come with others or come alone and make a new friend.

~ Bonnie Knuppel

The play takes place around a dockside cafe in 1970s Naples, Italy, where the leading character, Scapino, devises a complex plot to help two pairs of lovers fight against parental opposition that, it turns out, may not actually exist. Scapino is a rascal, a fast-talking, quick-thinking scamp who cleverly manipulates and cajoles everyone into doing what Scapino intends them to do.
